2006 Gingerbread House Competition

The Artists' Co-op invites you to enter our first-ever Gingerbread House Competition to be held Friday, Nov. 17, 2006, in our gallery inside the historic Washington Trust Building. Our competition is open to amateurs and professionals alike, individuals or groups. All houses will be on display during the holiday season, and winners will be announced at the holiday opening at 6 p.m. Nov. 17.

Contest rules:

1. No kits will be allowed. Your house must be your own creation.
2. All parts of the house must be made from non-perishable foods, including ingredients that are used as "glue." The main structure of the house should be gingerbread.
3. Houses must sit on a sturdy surface and limited to an 18"x18" space for youth and individual adult entries, and a 2-foot by 2-foot space for collaborative and professional entries.
4. Judging will be conducted by professionals in the culinary arts. Decisions of the judges are final. Cash awards will be given to the winners. Houses must be delivered to the Artists' Co-op from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Tuesday, Nov. 14 or 6 to 9 p.m. Wednesday, Nov. 15.
